

Umang | Looking beyond boundaries

Best Known for: Redefining 'Software Outsourcing' ensuring that it's not just restricted to handling outsourced software development of our client, but managing relationship.

The story: : Co-founded by Mangirish Salelkar, Umang Software Technologies is an offshore software development company providing IT outsourcing services and solutions to clients worldwide. Located in Mangao, Umang is registered under the Software Technology Parks of India (STPI) and has received a 100 per cent Export Oriented Unit (EOU) status. Their main areas of expertise lie in Software Product Development, Custom Application Development and Maintenance, Web Application Development, Website Design and Development, Mobile Application Development, Desktop Application Development, Application ReEngineering, Version Migration, Cloud Computing, Software Support and Maintenance, System Integration, Software Testing, Performance Engineering, IT Staffing, Software Development and Design Consulting Services.

At Umang, they treat every outsourcing contract as a relationship and put in extra efforts to nurture it to provide their clients something which they haven't asked, something that makes them happy and not just satisfied. As a company they have set coding, testing and documentation standards which they comply by.

However they are flexible to accommodate any new standards and protocols as followed by their clients. Umang also maintains a 100 per cent transparent workflow policy whereby right from the project requirement understanding and analysis to the delivery and deployment, they make sure that the progress card of your project is right in front of you.

Having been in the software development business for the last few years now, Umang ensures that they follow the best practices in software development. That apart, they provide services to clients located in different parts of the world, across different time zones, different cultural and linguistic backgrounds.

Unlike many other Indian companies, especially in the IT sector, which are employer oriented, Umang, being an employee oriented company comes as a breath of fresh air. The USP of the company is that they give utmost importance to employee satisfaction by focussing on their career growth and work-life balance.

For the team at Umang, innovation is the very means of their existence. Creativity with simplicity in complexity is what defines the innovation to them.
